Empowering Young Leaders for a Global Future: Harvard World MUN India Conference 2027

Dear Students & Parents,

Greetings of the day!

Kothari International School, Noida (IB & Cambridge) is pleased to share an exciting opportunity for students of Grades LS-3 to AS Level, IBDP-1 to participate in the Harvard World Model United Nations (WorldMUN) India Conference, hosted at Pathways School Gurgaon. Harvard World Model United Nations is an immersive global platform that brings together young leaders from around the world to engage in diplomacy, cultural exchange, and intellectual challenge. The conference will be mentored by Harvard University students, who will guide participants throughout the programme, providing an enriching and academically rigorous learning experience.

Key Benefits for Students

- Develop a broader global perspective by exploring diverse viewpoints and addressing international challenges.
- Strengthen leadership and teamwork skills through collaboration in multicultural settings.
- Expand their international network by interacting with peers and mentors from different backgrounds.
- Enhance negotiation, diplomacy, public speaking and communication skills through committee debates and resolution drafting.
- Build confidence, critical thinking, and problem-solving abilities.
- Gain valuable experience that can support their future academic and professional pursuits.

Conference Details
