Cambridge Twilight Camp – Grades 3 to IBDP, AS & A Levels

Dear Parents,

We are delighted to invite our Bridge Programme students to the Cambridge Twilight Camp, a specially designed evening introducing them to the IB and Cambridge learning environment. The programme provides an opportunity for students to interact with existing Cambridge students in a structured and supportive setting, helping them build confidence, form connections, and develop a sense of belonging within the school community.

Through engaging activities, students will experience key aspects of IB and Cambridge education —inquiry, collaboration, and active participation, while developing essential Approaches to Learning (ATL) skills such as communication, collaboration, and problem-solving.

Kindly note that student drop-off and pick-up will be the responsibility of parents, within the specified event timings.

Event Details

Date: 10 April 2026

Time: 3:30 pm – 8:15 pm

Venue: School Campus

Students will be placed in teams, enabling them to interact with both new and existing Cambridge students in a guided and collaborative environment.

Dinner will be provided to students on campus.

Dress Code

Students are required to come dressed in their House Uniform, ensuring comfort and ease of movement during the activities.

Safety & Supervision

The event will be conducted under close teacher supervision, with all necessary safety measures in place to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all students.

Students will be dispersed at 8:15 pm. Kindly complete and submit the consent form below to the school by Tuesday, 7th April.

Warm regards

Mrs. Tejinder Kaur

Head of School (IB & Cambridge)
